

POLICY: DISPLAYS & EXHIBITSApproved: September 14, 2010*Revised: July 27, 2021, June 27, 2023

Webster County Library (WCL) bulletin boards, displays and exhibit areas are intended primarily for promotion of the library's services and activities. Each display shall only include material classified for one age group: children, young adults/teens, or adults. Said displays shall only be displayed in the corresponding area in the library for that age group. A parent or guardian of a minor child has the right to dispute the age-appropriate designation or placement of displays or exhibits within the library.

At the request of the library, WCL may provide exhibit (display) space to individuals or community organizations engaged in educational, cultural, intellectual, or other not-for-profit activities on a space-available basis for specified time periods. The exhibit must be deemed educational or informational in nature, and of interest to the public. The provision of display space and accepting items for exhibit does not constitute or imply WCL endorsement of the individual or organization submitting the item(s), or of the content or the viewpoints expressed by those responsible for the exhibit. The library reserves the right to reclaim display space for any reason and at any time. Approval for all exhibits rest with the Director or the Director's designee. The Director or their designee will schedule and coordinate all exhibits.
